The History

The Library was dedicated on December 19, 1983. At that time, the building was 9,000 square feet. Brook Hollow was remodeled and opened again on March 8, 1997 at 13,074 square feet. A 2005 renovation added 1500 square feet and created a large children's area. Major donors include the San Pedro Hills Women's Club and the Brook Hollow Friends.

The Branch is named for the geographic area. The San Pedro Hills Women's Club worked as a community organization to obtain a branch library in the San Pedro Hills area. Brook Hollow Library became the first library to be built outside Loop 410.
